CLASSES

6 – 8 year olds

Sat @ 10 – 11.30am

This class provides an introduction to drama through games and stories. Members are encouraged to develop their self expression and to explore their imaginations. Activities place emphasis on improvisation, including movement, character and story. The 6-8 class is an hour and a half long.

9 – 12 year olds

Sat @ 11.45am – 1.45pm

SYT 9-12 uses tutor led improvisation and drama games to help participants develop skills in acting such as character narrative development, voice and movement. Participant input is very important and much of each groups work will be inspired by issues of relevance to the participants. Most people find that SYT 9-12 is a great place to meet new friends with similar interests. The 9-12 class runs for two hours.

13-14 year olds

Sat @ 2 – 4pm

SYT 13-14 uses tutor led improvisation and drama games to help participants develop skills in acting such as character narrative development, voice and movement. Participant input is very important and much of each groups work will be inspired by issues of relevance to the participants. Most people find that SYT 13-14 is a great place to meet new friends with similar interests. The 13-14 class runs for two hours.

15-25

Sat @ 4 – 6pm

The Senior Workshop concentrates on improvisation and provides a wide ranging dramatic experience. It is open to anyone regardless of previous experience. The 15-25 class runs for two hours.
