Class Details: The Festival Theatre

3 – 4 year olds Junior Skint Knees Saturday @ 10.30am

Junior Skint Knees provides an introduction to drama through games, stories and art activities. Members are encouraged to develop their self-expression and to explore their imaginations. All our tutors are experienced in working with very young children and, although some first timers can be a bit overwhelmed by the lively atmosphere, they soon settle in and realise that Junior Skint Knees is a lot of fun.

5 – 7 year olds Skint Knees Saturdays @ 10.30am

8 – 10 year olds Skint Knees Fridays @ 1.45pm
Saturdays @ 11.45am

Skint Knees continues the approach of JSK but the activities have more emphasis on improvisation, including movement, character and story. Because children in this age group tend to be developing at a rapid pace, Skint Knees provides separate classes for 5 – 7 and 8 – 10 year olds.

11 – 14 year olds SYT 11 – 14 Saturdays @ 12.15pm

11 – 12 year olds SYT 11 – 12 Fridays @ 4pm
Saturdays @ 2.30pm

13 – 14 year olds SYT 13 – 14 Fridays @ 4pm
Saturdays @ 2.30pm

SYT 11 – 14 uses tutor led improvisation and drama games to help participants develop skills in acting such as character and narrative development, voice and movement. Participant input is very important and much of each group's work will be inspired by issues of relevance to the participants. Most people find that SYT 11 – 14 is a great place to meet new friends with similar interests. SYT 11 – 14 classes are split into groups for 11 – 12 and 13 – 14 year olds wherever possible.

15 – 25 year olds Senior Workshop Saturdays @ 4.30pm

The Senior Workshop concentrates on improvisation and provides a wide-ranging dramatic experience. It is open to anyone, regardless of previous experience.
