

A – Z of Fundraising

- A. All day event. Ask at your local leisure centre or youth club if you can arrange a 24 hour sponsored event such as a sporting event.
- B. Bag packing. Ask your local supermarket if you can raise money by packing bags.
- C. What about a car boot sale or a coffee morning.
- D. Organise a disco and charge an admission fee. Ask your school or youth club if they'd be willing to provide the venue.
- E.
- F. Turn an activity like car washing into something fun, by wearing fancy dress as you do it.
- G.
- H.
- I. Ice skating. Get people to sponsor you for how many times you go can skate around the ice rink in one hour.
- J. Jumble sale. Ask people to donate old clothes for you to sell.
- K. Karaoke evening. Host a karaoke evening and charge an entrance fee or a fee to perform.
- L.
- M.
- N. Ask your school if you can hold a non-uniform day. Ask students to pay a small fee to wear casual clothes for a day.
- O. Odd jobs. Offer to do odd jobs such as ironing and cleaning for friends and family in exchange for small amounts.
- P. Wear your pyjama's for a day and ask friends to sponsor you.
- Q. Arrange a quiz night.
- R.
- S. Sponsored silence. Ask people to sponsor you to stay silent for an afternoon (or even longer). Alternatively if you don't fancy being quiet for a day, organise a sponsored swim or bike ride or leg waxing. Previous male participants of Summer Festival raised money by waxing their legs.
- T. Organise a theme night and charge a fee to attend. A 70's disco is popular.
- U.
- V. Organise a variety show during a school lunch time and charge a small fee to come along. Don't forget to get permission from your school first.
- W. Wash cars for family and friends locally.
- X.
- Y.
- Z.

Use your imagination and drama skills You might want to come up with an original idea for fundraising that reflects your passion for acting.

GOOD LUCK!